TEN PAGES—THREE CENTS

23 PERSONS ARE KILLED BY WIND STORM IN SOUTH

Property Damage Will Run Into Thousands Of Dollars

By The Associated Press
Twenty-three persons were killed and probably damage of thousands of dollars was caused by tornado winds which swept across east Texas, northwestern Louisiana and southwestern Arkansas last night.

Scores were injured when homes fell. Trees were uprooted. Physicians, battling muddy roads and rain swollen creeks to reach the injured, said they expected searching parties would find other victims about the stricken communities.

Mount Holly, Ark., Shelbyville, Huntington and Lindeale, Tex., and Hall Summit, La., were hard hit among the communities swept by the storms.

Death List

A tentative death list by community areas:

Mount Holly
Mrs. Floyd Boyett, unidentified child.

Shelbyville
Mrs. Jessie Vail, 35, Ed Passmore, 45. A woman identified as the daughter of Ben Graves. Her infant child. Unidentified white man, about 25 years old.

Huntington
Miss Lena Linton, George Knight, Mrs. Roebuck, eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Welch, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Woodrum.

Hall Summit, La.
Russell Jones, Mrs. Russell Jones. Their two children, Jones' sister-in-law, Johnny Robinson.

Indications the death toll might be higher came in the report of a telephone operator at Coushatta, La., that a storm striking there, however, in the Red River Parish, killed six persons and caused heavy property damage. Telephone lines were out and rescue parties were en route to that section. Communication with Ringgold, a few miles north of Hall Summit, also was out.

Damage and softening of roads under drenching rain made work of caring for the injured difficult. Shattered communication lines prevented speedy identification of all the victims.

All available hospital accommodations at Shelbyville were crowded. Physicians rushed from Center and San Augustine to treat the injured Texans.

El Dorado Ark., Oil Company officials said the storm damaged several oil field towns. Derricks were knocked over near McKenzie and Lacey within a 25-mile radius of El Dorado.

The village of Etouffe, 30 miles south-east of Nacogdoches, Texas, was practically wiped out, but so far as could be learned, no one injured. About 50 persons were left homeless. Four stores and about a dozen homes were demolished. Relief supplies were being sent out from Nacogdoches.

The settlement of Jamestown in Bienville Parish, La., was also reported razed by the winds, but no reports of casualties were received.

Coushatta authorities said they learned the storm swept through Harmon and Carroll in Red River Parish, La., causing considerable damage in both communities.

More than 20 negro children were injured when the storm wrecked a schoolhouse near Shelbyville, and a hasty survey of the area showed that 20 or 30 white persons were injured.

The same storm previously had passed northwest of San Augustine, injuring four persons in the Lane community. A second tornado struck 10 miles west of San Augustine several hours later, wrecking several houses and injuring a girl.

Witnesses said the Shelbyville storm came from nowhere and swept across Shelby county farmlands, uprooting trees and shattering frame houses as it passed.

At Henderson, in the east Texas oil field, the wind storm caused some property damage and the low hanging clouds produced a darkness which necessitated the use of lights on motor cars and in buildings.

WEATHER

RAILROAD LABOR IS OPPOSED TO 'COORDINATION'

Claim Thousands Of Men Would Lose Their Jobs

Washington, March 30.—(AP)—American railroad labor, with fewer men employed than at any time during the last half century, today voiced opposition to indicated plans of the administration for co-ordinated operation of the carriers.

Meanwhile, representatives of the American Farm Bureau, the National Grange and the Farmers Union said they were against any regulation of motor carrier rates at this time.

Recommendations dealing with bus and truck transportation, however, are not expected to be included in the proposals for emergency transportation legislation which the president is preparing.

Representatives of the 21 standard railroad unions meeting here characterized any plan for one-man control of the nation's rail carriers as a proposal to deprive thousands of communities of service and "several hundred thousand workers of work and wages."

Their statement said they opposed any "dictatorship" over the railroads, and that they feared the days of competition are ended, that the rail monopoly control which the people will tolerate will be direct control by the government.

At the same time Donald Richberg, counsel for the brotherhoods, said that when he was called to the White House a week ago he refused to participate in discussions of railroad coordination. He informed the president he said that in his capacity as counsel for the workers he could not lend his aid to any one-man control plan.

The plea that motor carriers be dealt with separately from railway, water and aerial transportation was delivered at the White House today by Edward A. O'Neal of the Farm Federation, John Simpson, of the Farmers Union, and Fred Brenkman, of the Grange.

Their statement urged that no attempt be made at this time to regulate rates of "contract or private motor carriers."

The railway brotherhoods met in special session here to consider the problem raised by plans for rail coordination.

"The organized railway employees," said the brotherhood statement, "announce their unyielding opposition to every program for increasing unemployment and destroying purchasing power by either reducing work or cutting wages. x x x"

The government should borrow from those who will lend and take from those who will not lend all the money necessary to put millions of men to work now. We should be done with vacillation and delay and do this first thing, x x x"

"The railroads today give an example of the failure and incapacity of private ownership of an essential industry. Railroad owners are now proposing to deprive thousands of communities of service, to deprive several hundred thousand of workers of work and wages, to destroy billions of dollars in property values in order that they may make unjust profits out of a consolidated monopoly of mainline railroads."

PERFECT PINOCCHIO HAND

Joliet, March 30.—(AP)—Walter Kirsche has added a pinocchio play to the legend of "perfect" card playing hands.

Playing last night with Martin Mueller, against Fred C. Wietting and Ernest W. Bitterman, Kirsche held a double trick of diamonds. His other two cards were the nine of diamonds and the ace of spades. This gave him a meld of 1510. He had playing tricks of 230 points.

With positive elation he bid 1760 and made it. His opponents had needed only 40 to go out and win.

J. P. MORGAN CO. RECORDS WILL BE INSPECTED

Senate Committee Is Determined To Get All Facts

Washington, March 30.—(AP)—A Senate investigation headed tonight towards the most files of one of the world's great banking houses, J. P. Morgan and company, determined to bring to light anything that has a bearing on the central task of correcting stock and bond sale practices.

Authority to inspect the Morgan records was sought of the Senate by its banking committee, which disclosed it had been rebuffed to far in its efforts to bring the big private banking concern into the light of its stock market investigation. There appeared to be no doubt that the Senate would grant this power.

Plan Legislation

But not even that investigation was allowed to stand in the way of action on the Roosevelt proposal for immediate legislation to bring security issuance and sale under the regulation of the federal government.

Both the banking committee of the Senate and the interstate commerce committee of the House set for tomorrow morning the start of hearings on this legislation.

At once, Cummings and Hiram Thompson, one-time member of the federal trade commission, were invited as first witnesses, but Cummings will be unable to appear.

The House hearings are expected by representatives of the exchange commission to be held in the morning, but they may be postponed for report to the floor early next week.

On the Senate side plans were less definite because the banking committee received the securities bill only today. It was referred to the judiciary committee, which included having a hearing on the bill after one day's study.

The banking committee pointed to its long stock investigation, all directed at curing security abuses, and asked to be given the bill. The Senate complied, and tomorrow's hearing was merely postponed, there was every indication that action would not be delayed.

The Morgan situation developed when Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel in charge of the stock market inquiry, reported to the Senate that 23 questions to the banking house regarding its operations, the bankers agreed to answer only 15. Through John W. Davis, its counsel, the banking house questioned the committee's authority on seven of the questions, and Pecora refused to answer the other Pecora said.

Pecora said the questions on which answers were refused had to do with the capital structure of the banking house. He did not disclose the other questions.

He continued to the committee the work he and his investigators have been doing in their study of private bankers, but indicated it would be sometime before he was ready to present evidence in open hearings.

The committee decided to leave to the treasury and justice departments investigation of the Morgan bank, National Bank and Trust Co., and the question of past delay in prosecuting its former chairman, Joseph W. Harrison, for false entries in the bank's accounts.

After the meeting, Pecora outlined the objective of the inquiry.

TWO YOUTHS WHO KILLED RANCHER ARE SENTENCED

Pair Claim Slaying Was The Result Of Quarrel Over $4.00

Chicago, March 30.—(AP)—Benjamin F. Herr, 22, of McCluskey, N. D., and Merle LeRoy Lowman, 19, of Westerheim, N. D., were sentenced to life imprisonment today after pleading guilty in criminal court to the murder last October 31 of Henry Shoop, rancher of Wibaux, Montana.

Judge James P. Farley pronounced sentence after Lowman related from the witness stand an account of Shoop's death which conflicted with the youths' confession as presented by Lieut. Otto Erlanson.

The Montana rancher was found beaten to death in his room at a hotel near the stockyards.

Lowman testified that he fought with Shoop in self-defense after a quarrel over a $4 debt.

"Herr and Shoop began to fight," Lowman said, "and I went in to separate them. Shoop knocked over Herr who fell across the bed. Then he went for me and I hit him over the head with a water glass. We had been drinking whiskey provided by Shoop."

He denied that he and his companion had gone to the cattleman's hotel room with the intention of robbing him.

Lieut. Erlanson, preceding Lowman on the stand, said the youths had confessed planning to rob Shoop and had struck him with a glass wrapped in a towel.

Herr and Lowman several weeks ago entered pleas of not guilty, but changed them today as selection of a jury began. In their confession each accused the other of striking the blows that caused Shoop's death.

ADMINISTRATION RELIEF PROGRAM BEING ADVANCED

Senate Passes The Bill Which Now Goes To House

By Harold Oliver (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, March 30.—(AP)—The second step in the administration's vast three-point unemployment and hunger relief program—the appropriation of $500,000,000 for direct federal relief to the unemployed—was approved by the Senate today and was sent to the House where passage is expected Monday.

The measure, which included having a hearing on the bill after one day's study, the committee's authority on seven of the questions, and Pecora refused to answer the other Pecora said.

Pecora said the questions on which answers were refused had to do with the capital structure of the banking house. He did not disclose the other questions.

Springfield, Ill., March 30.—(AP)—Word that collection of the three percent sales tax would start April 1 was sent from the Illinois Capitol today as Governor Henry Horner and other officials announced plans to contest the injunction against the new law.

Retailers should collect the sales revenue and segregate it until the constitutionality of the sales tax has been determined, said Otto Kerner, attorney general, and Joseph J. Rice, director of finance.

Meanwhile, officials made efforts to rush the issue before the April 15 term of the State Supreme Court.

Much Confusion

To the confusion about how the tax on retail sales should be administered, further uncertainty followed the injunction granted at Edwardsville last night by circuit judge Jesse R. Brown.

But the council of Illinois merchants, which sponsored the court test of the law, agreed with Rice and Kerner by recommending that its members make efforts to collect the gross tax on retail sales of tangible, personal property.

"Merchants in general," Kerner said, "will continue to collect this tax and hold the money so collected intact pending the final decision of the supreme court."

If the law is upheld, merchants would be liable for tax receipts after Saturday. Otherwise, Kerner ruled, the collections should be refunded to consumers.

The attorney general received word that Chambers of Commerce in many cities would go ahead with the payment of the tax, on which only motor fuel and farmers' produce are exempt.

To Kerner a list of questions about administration of the tax was submitted by C. C. Simpson of Danville, director of the Council of Illinois Merchants. Hundreds of similar cases have previously been submitted by individual retailers, seeking interpretations and specific regulations.

"The department of finance will require retailers to pay the tax on all gross receipts from sales at retail made after April 1," said Judge Brown's injunction is not sustained. The measure, which included having a hearing on the bill after one day's study, the committee's authority on seven of the questions, and Pecora refused to answer the other Pecora said.

After hurried conferences with Mr. Horner Kerner said that Judge Brown's jurisdiction over the question would be investigated. Probabilities are that a final decree will be entered at Edwardsville and an immediate appeal taken.

The sales tax, designed to produce $500,000,000 in revenue, was one of Horner's major legislative projects. Receipts were to be used by metropolitan counties for poor relief and elsewhere to supplement school funds.

Opponents of the tax feared it would cross state lines to trade. Rep. Leroy Green of Rockford led the organization of the merchants group.

Among the questions raised by Simpson were the following:

Do retailers have to pay a tax on just the material used in their work or on the complete job, most of which is labor?

Are printers considered as manufacturers or as retailers, thereby coming under the bill?

Are sales of wholesalers to retail customers taxable as sales to a consumer on items such as paper or twine?

Kerner's office was preparing rulings on such questions before the injunction was issued.

Attorney general Otto Kerner today ruled that insurance on goods subject to the three percent sales tax law because it is not tangible personal property.

MAYOR SMITH OF ZEIGLER GIVEN FREEDOM ON BAIL

Benton, Ill., March 30.—(AP)—Mayor Charles Murphy Smith of Zeigler and two other city officials were named in warrants late today charging conspiracy to commit arson in a fire in that city attributed by State's Attorney M. M. Hart to union coal mine difficulties.

Mayor Smith, Walter Kroski, Zeigler fire chief, and A. B. Carr, Zeigler water commissioner, waived preliminary hearings, Hart said, and were freed on bonds of $1,000 each pending trial at the May term of circuit court.

The three were brought here from Zeigler earlier today and questioned concerning a fire that leveled the boarding house where Ray Edmundson, president of Sub-District Nine of the United Mine Workers, resided in Zeigler.

The action came a few hours after Mayor Smith and Claude Pearcey, president of the rival Progressive Miners Union, had appeared in Springfield to ask Governor Henry Horner to send militiamen to Zeigler. The mayor said the town was on the verge of "revolution" because of mine disorders.

Governor Horner, however, said that the joint-legislative mine commission which recently investigated conditions in Franklin county, so far has seen no necessity for sending troops there.

Law enforcement in Zeigler was taken over by deputies from the office of Sheriff Dunnington Robinson who contended that local officials were unable to cope with the situation. Stanley Mundell, a deputy, has taken over the duties of mayor.

The boarding house fire occurred early today and also destroyed two other buildings, officials said. They charged that Kroski failed to respond to the fire alarm promptly, that a hose was disconnected from the fire truck, and that no wrenches were available.

TOLEDO MAN BANKRUPT

Danville, Ill., March 30.—(AP)—Jacob Walter Gismaroff of Toledo, Ill., today filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy in federal court, listing liabilities at $2,656.63 and assets at $281.45.

E. J. STEVENS WOULD CONTROL ILLINOIS LIFE

Claims R. F. C. Sent Insurance Firm In To Failure

Chicago, March 30.—(AP)—The once affluent and influential Stevens family shattered by financial loss, a suicide, and illness—began a final attempt today to regain control of the $150,000,000 Illinois Life Insurance Company.

Ernest J. Stevens, his brother a suicide and his 59-year-old father near death from apoplexy brought on by worry and grief, started the action by filing a petition in federal court.

In the petition he charged the Reconstruction Finance Corporation sent the company into failure by breaking a promise to loan it $5,000,000. He demanded that negotiations for sale of the company's assets be stopped and that the action be reinstated toward obtaining the loan.

"With the assistance of the loan, together with the recently enacted state law restricting payment of cash surrender value of policies," the petition stated, "the company could resume business as a going concern."

Stevens stated that Howard Preston, Chicago manager for the Finance Corporation, promised the loan—and that when he did so Preston was thoroughly conversant with all details of the company's business and investments.

The insurance company eventually obtained a loan of $700,000, but later went into receivership. Ernest J. Stevens was indicted on criminal charges together with his 80-year-old father, James W. Stevens, a victim of apoplexy, and Raymond W. who committed suicide several days ago.

Negotiations are underway for the Illinois Life's insurance business to be taken over by the J. S. Kemper Insurance interests. Stevens demanded that they be halted. Trial of the three Stevens had been scheduled for last Monday, but was continued because of the illness of the father and the death of Raymond W. Stevens.

Washington, March 30.—(AP)—Jesse H. Jones, a director of the Reconstruction Corporation, said today there was nothing his organization could do about charges made in Chicago by Ernest J. Stevens, former vice president of the Illinois Life Insurance Company, that the R. F. C. was responsible for the failure of that company.

"Mr. Stevens can make whatever charges he wishes," Jones said. "I don't know whether he is right or not. Perhaps he is. But he is not in a position to make such applications to be turned down, is he?"

Jones said he was perfectly willing for the insurance company to make another application for a loan.

Stevens said he was perfectly willing for the insurance company to make another application for a loan.

BOMB DAMAGES RESIDENCE OF REV. COUGHLIN

Detroit Priest Has Been Figure in Banking Controversy

Detroit, March 30.—(AP)—A piece of string—the slenderest of clues—tonight was the sole tangible object held by detectives in the search for the bomber who exploded a bomb in the home of the Rev. Fr. Charles E. Coughlin.

The bomb lowered into the basement, caused only slight damage and no injuries.

Father Coughlin, a principal figure in the controversy over Detroit's banking situation, said he did not regard the bombing as an attempt on his life, but rather as an intimidation. He was shaken by the explosion, which came as he slept, but was unhurt.

Tonight the two-story frame dwelling in Fairlawn avenue of suburban Royal Oak was under police guard. Father Coughlin left the home shortly before noon, and attendants said he did not advise them whether he would return tonight.

Detectives who hurried to the home of the priest, near the Church of the Shrine of the Little Flower, of which he is pastor, reported there were little outward signs of the blast. Five windows were damaged, and in the basement, a quantity of canned goods, which Father Coughlin had collected for distribution to charity had been smashed. The detectives said that only the unmistakable smell of black powder gave them the clue to the kind of explosive used.

Hanging from the frame of a window the officers found a long wire cord, with which the bomb apparently had been lowered into the basement and held in place by the window frame. Detectives searched the neighborhood for possible witnesses who might have seen an automobile near the home, but none were found.

Father Coughlin, who for many weeks has been delivering addresses on political religious and economic matters, did not comment on his expressed theory of intimidation. His assistants refused to discuss the explosion.

Recently Father Coughlin has engaged in a heated controversy with opponents of the government plan under which the new National Bank of Detroit was established here, shortly after the two large national banks, the First National and the Guardian National, had been placed under conservators.

He had addressed the public, asking for support of the new bank, and had criticized sharply Detroit bankers and opponents of the new plan. In turn, criticism had been directed at him for his opposition to a plan of reopening the two inoperative banks.

QUICK APPROVAL OF FARM RELIEF BILL PREDICTED

Major Test Will Come In Agriculture Committee

Washington, March 30.—(AP)—Senate approval of President Roosevelt's far-reaching farm relief bill—one of the basic points in his recovery program—was forecast today even by opponents of the measure.

With the major test yet to come in the senate agriculture committee, members of that group today voted three changes in the bill, none shifting the heart of the program, which is intended to curtail farm production and boost prices.

Peanuts Added

Peanuts and flax were added by the committee to the list of basic commodities in the measure and efforts will be made tomorrow to include oats, potatoes, citrus and other fruits before it is sent to the senate floor.

The group also deleted provisions that the secretary of agriculture in fixing the processing tax rates should consider the effect on unemployment, wage scales and the rate of consumption.

But opponents of the program privately said they were not encouraged by the amendment movement. Instead they held that the measure in the form in which the committee reports it, administration supporters in the senate will return it to the original form in which it passed the house.

Leaders of farm organizations who have been busily counting the bills supporters, predicted passage in its original form, or without material change. They did not believe final action will be completed, however, in the next ten days.

The most formidable challenge to the bill is scheduled for tomorrow when the committee will vote on the proposal of its chairman, Senator Smith (D. S. C.), to curtail greatly the powers proposed for Secretary Wallace to determine methods of relief and apply them as he feels warranted. Smith's proposal is in the shape of a substitute bill in which the cotton option plan would be retained.

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., chairman of the farm board, today outlined a program to expedite sale of commodities held by farm marketing cooperatives which have farm board loans.

He appointed H. E. Babcock of Ithaca, New York, a cooperative expert, to assist the organizations in moving the stored products into consumption channels "in an orderly manner." The commodities have been pledged as collateral for $157,236,323 in board loans.

Cotton is represented by the largest loans among the commodities on which Morgenthau's program will put a "for sale" sign with a total $64,665,322. Wheat loans aggregate $16,738,503; tobacco $2,447,443; wool, $18,569,768; dairy products, $10,924,914 and California grape products, $11,162,610.

Chairman Wagner of the banking sub-committee appointed to consider farm mortgage refinancing expressed hope that the administration measure for relief in this direction will be presented soon.

Senator McNary (R. Ore.) proposed the change which would reduce the number of factors Secretary Wallace would have to consider in fixing processing tax schedules. It was adopted 8 to 6.

The Mooney Case
Tom Mooney, serving a life sentence in California for the Preparedness parade bombing outrage in San Francisco 16 years ago, is again on the front page. He is to be tried on a murder indictment in connection with the bombing, an indictment which has not been previously used against him. Those fighting for Mooney's freedom hope to have him proved not guilty of the murder charge and thereby secure a wedge to use in securing a pardon for him
from his life imprisonment.
But there is another angle to this situation. If Mooney is found guilty of murder he may be sentenced to death. Apparently he and his friends are willing to take this chance, which,

in view of the stubborn resistance of California to his pleas for pardon, is a rather grave one. A death sentence will of course attract worldwide attention, and will secure publicity which may do infinite harm.
Even if Mooney is proved not guilty, the chance of his being pardoned continues slim. California governors have been rather consistent in their refusal to grant a pardon, and they do so after careful examination of the evidence submitted in the previous Mooney trial. It is doubtful whether a jury's verdict in favor of Mooney will have any effect, since a declaration of belief in his innocence by the judge who sentenced him has failed to move the executives to clemency.

150,000 ENROLL
FOR WORK UNDER
RED CROSS FLAG

In recent months a large number of women have found their way into Red Cross sewing rooms for their first time.
A host of others, whose needles had been idle since World War days, reassembled under the Red Cross banner at the first call for workers. A nation-wide appeal for 100,000 women volunteers made by the organization's vice-chairman, James L. Fieser, early in the program, met with an immediate response. Before the end of the year nearly 150,000 adults were engaged in the work.
Although it has been necessary for the national organization to issue specific instructions periodically to chapters participating in the flour and cloth projects, the careful planning, economical handling and ingenious methods of production on the part of local committees to meet individual community situations have been outstanding.
Co-operation received by chapters
as well as by the national organization has been a significant factor in speeding up the operation. Nationally, the milling and textile industries and railroads have given the Red Cross orders prompt attention and in many cases priority handling. Locally, civic and welfare organizations, garment factories and other interested firms have united in an effort to expedite the work.
Use of sewing machines, electric cutters and other necessary equipment has been donated to hundreds of chapters engaged in garment production. Flour and cloth warehousing and workshop problems have been solved in many communities by free rentals. In not a few localities flour and cotton shipments have been hailed without charge, often in coun-

Some friends had gathered—all agree
To hear a couple that they knew
Proclaim the solemn vow, 'I do.'

Took up their home in the countryside,
They were not favored with much
gold
But health and joy were theirs, we're told.
They labored hard from morn 'til
night,
At all times striving for the right;
And whether God sent sun or rain
Their spirits never seemed to wane.
As time went on the children came;
Their love for each was just the same:
Three girls, three boys—another girl
Each, to the parents, was a pearl.
They struggled on with greater speed,
Because there were more mouths to feed
More clothes to buy and food each day
All kind of bills they had to pay.
Then sorrow came so many times
To their dear faces—added lines:
They're surely had more than their share
Much more it seemed than they could bear.
But they've been brave through all the years,
Knew where to go to dry their tears:
It was the Master helped them thru
Told them always what to do.
And now that they have older grown
Do they sit down and weep and moan?
Ah, no! their time and substance lend
To some unfortunate good friend.
They've helped the widow with good food
And sent warm clothing to her brood;
Found a bike for the paper boy
Done countless things to give folks joy.
And now you'd like to know the name
Of these good folks of modest fame?
Well, I'll tell you, it's no other Than my Father and my Mother.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

White Hall, March 30.—James P.
Dawdy, well known resident of this community, passed away at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. A. Riggs, on West Bridgeport street.
He was born June 18, 1856. He was married to Miss Julia Jones, who preceded him in death 16 years ago.
Mr. Dawdy is survived by three sons,
Ernest of Patterson, Ray of Manchester and Leo of Alton, and three daughters, Edith of Peoria and Lydia and Mrs. R. A. Riggs, both of White Hall. He leaves also one sister, Mrs.
Lydia Bell of White Hall, fourteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
Mr. Dawdy was a member of the Primitive Baptist church at Barrow.
Funeral services will be held sometime Saturday from the First Baptist church in White Hall in charge of Elder William Dobbs of Girard. Interment will take place

GALAX LEAVES TAKE PLACE OF BILLS IN SOUTH

Camden, N. C., March 30.—(AP)—Galax leaves, green as dollar bills and just as negotiable, are drawing southern highlanders to covet and slopes for the spring revival of a queer industry.

Slash land markets that buy or barter for the galax to ship to cities for use in wreaths and corsages are finding business pretty satisfactory.

and a steady demand for the leaves has led unemployed amateurs to join the ranks of the professional pickers. Galax is a characteristic plant of the southern Appalachians that grows wild. The leaves, shiny, tough and roundly heart-shaped, stay fresh for months.

In the western North Carolina backlands, the leaves are good as ready cash. They are hard to get, inaccessible to casual search, and the demand is fairly steady. One can always swap a couple of bunches—they're tied in bundles of 25—for a can of snuff or four or five bunches for a peck or so of meal or some "streak o' lean" pork. Or they'll bring the equivalent in cash if it's preferred.

DAVIS IN CONFERENCE
London, March 30.—(AP)—Norman H. Davis, special ambassador of the United States in Europe, and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, this morning began a series of talks at No. 10 Downing street covering the whole range of world problems, with emphasis on the forthcoming world economic conference and disarmament.

Mr. Davis arrived in England yesterday from America. He will return to Downing street this afternoon for a continuation of the conferences and will remain in London over the week end.

Among the Carrollton shoppers here Thursday was Miss Lena White.

SOCIETY

Secret Seven Give Coffee-Waffle Dance.
The Misses Lela Keehner, Barbara and Katherine Meyer, members of the Secret Seven of MacMurray College, gave a coffee-waffle dance Wednesday evening at the Kiwanis Hut for the members and their friends.

Among those present were Misses Esther Ward, Helen Yeck, Virginia Vasey and Messrs. John Beird, Harold Patterson, Leonard McGill, Edgar Wright, Joe Meyer, George Vasey, Bob Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brainer.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Of College Meets.
The members of Sigma Phi Epsilon literary society of Illinois College held a business meeting yesterday afternoon in the society rooms in the David A. Smith house.

Plans concerning the spring formal, the formal tea for freshmen and the last open meeting for freshmen, the latter to take the form of a party, will be held on April 15. A committee composed of Helen Sturdy, chairman, Gretchen Beale, Gerry Hunter and Dorothy Nelson was appointed to make arrangements for the party. These three events will bring the season's activities to a close.

MATRIMONY

Mason-Samples
William O. Mason, of Murrayville and Angie L. Samples of Jacksonville were united in marriage last evening at 6:30 o'clock by Rev. Harry Lothian, pastor of Northminster church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason of Murrayville and the bride is a daughter of Robert Stacy of Jacksonville.

The newlyweds will leave tomorrow for Milwaukee where they will reside.

CLUBS

The South Side circle will meet Friday afternoon, March 31, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Grant Graff, 1326 West State street.

The East Side Community club will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening at the Morton school east of the city. Alvin Middendorf is chairman of the program.

The Morgan County League of Women Voters will have their regular meeting Saturday, April 1, at 3 o'clock at Academy Hall.

Miss Margaret Hanback represented the Murrayville community here yesterday.

Tilda's Shopping Tips

BEGIN YOUR CHECKERED CAREER
In this sheer delight I found at the MINTER DRESS SHOPPE (Applegate Bldg.). It has everything for your business season wardrobe—slim tailored lines, a flattering neckline, and the smartest little jacket I've seen to make it practical and altogether individual.

HOW MANY TIMES
have you glanced ruefully at the heels of your shoes after piloting the family bus about? Some inventive genius, and it must have been a woman, has planned for comfort as well as trimness, with snuggly-fitting heel protectors to slip over a pair of light shoes easily spotted.

THEY'RE BUSY AS BEES
KELLY-AULD'S making these new style shoulder corsages for the season that fit so snugly and look so stunning. Exquisitely finished with violets, gardenias, and sweet peas they fairly take your breath.

MEMORY LANE
Do you remember . . . "Emanuel, the horn tooter?" Ask any one of the alumnae of the Illinois Female Academy (now MacMurray College) of about 40 years ago. They can tell you how Emanuel patrolled the walks daily, tooting his horn, and waving to the girls. Sometimes a day passed by without a toot from the horn, and the girls knew that Emanuel must be quite ill. Nothing less than being sick a-bed could prevent his keeping the "toot." His memory lingers in the hearts of many of our residents.

Won't you send in an account of an interesting character or event for our Memory Lane column, something or someone you recall from the past and closely linked with Jacksonville's history—in other words, we'll have our own "Remember Way Back When" corner. Let's have some contributions for next week!

YOU'VE WAITED FOR THIS!
I dropped into the Book Shelf (29 S. St.) just as Miss Brennan unwrapped Noel Coward's two latest—"Calvacade" and "Design for Living." "Rasputin" is there, too, if you want to brush up on it before the movie comes.

WOMEN WHO WON'T COMPROMISE with style or quality, though compelled to seek lower prices, will be delighted with the dresses at the AURA PALMER SHOP (111 South Clay) where prices are scaled to meet today's income.

When a skirt and a jacket differ on the subject of color this spring, there's high style lurking in the cut-off!

GIFTS OF SILVER
always call forth ecstatic cries from brides. May I lead you firmly down to BASSETT'S JEWELRY STORE where marvelous discounts are on. Most of the brides-to-be get their silver there, so you can ask the right pattern and avoid duplication.

All performing machines must be working overtime judging by the new glove cuts and shoes. And speaking of gloves, they are going into dressmaker details with a view to accentuate the feminine details in frocks and dressmaker suits. They show tucks, pleatines, ruffles, rows of French knots, hemstitching, tiny pearl buttons and lace insets.

DON'T DATE YOURSELF
Let Mrs. Tremplin suggest a unique way of remodeling last year's dress. She guarantees the work done at the RELIABLE DRESSMAKING SHOP (471 S. S. Square).

FOR A RAINY DAY
The newest rain style will please those who shop, rain or shine. Many of checked rubberized fabric, they swing as beautifully over you as should as any wool travel cape.

CHICAGO STORES PLAN TO COLLECT TAX REGARDLESS

Chicago, March 30.—(AP)—Retailers in Chicago generally planned today to proceed Saturday with collection of the state 3 per cent sales tax despite an injunction granted against the law by the federal court.

Officials of the larger stores said they had anticipated court action to restrain collection of the tax. They also pointed out that the injunction only restrains state officials from collecting the tax, and has no effect on the merchant.

Two of the largest downtown stores, Marshall Field & Company and the Davis store, announced they would absorb the tax on all articles sold from 1 to 10 cents.

From 11 to 34 cents the tax will be one cent, from 35 to 67 cents the tax will be two cents, and from 67 cents to $1 it will be three cents. A tax of 3 per cent will apply to sales over $1.

Retailers generally said they planned to follow the same system. A large drug chain said it would collect no tax on articles selling for 16 cents or less.

The Chicago Association of Restaurants announced members would collect the tax on the bracket system. One cent would be added to all sales checks up to 35 cents, two cents on checks from 36 cents to 70 cents, and three cents on checks from 71 cents to $1.

FARMER SENTENCED

Elk Point, S. D., March 30.—(AP)—A farm strike, slaying cost a pickup truck three years in the penitentiary. The sentence was imposed today on Niles Cochran, Moville, Iowa, farmer, in circuit court today after a jury had found him guilty of second degree manslaughter in connection with the death of R. D. Markell, Elk Point milk trucker. Markell was fatally wounded in a gun battle Feb. 3.

—Mrs. E. C. Pearce accompanied by Mrs. Laura Pritchett. Piano solo, "Londonderry Air"—Mrs. Merle Mackey. Piano duet, "The Palms" (Grainger)—Mildred Morrow and Mrs. Carl Moulton. Miss Grace Gibboney of Chicago was a guest.

Miss Ellis was assisted by Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. K. W. Vanderpool, Mrs. F. N. McLaren, Miss Helen Worcester and Miss Effie Nicholson. The next meeting will be held the last Wednesday in April, and at that time the Winchester Woman's Dramatic club will return the visit of the White Hall club and give a drama in the White Hall High school gymnasium, which will be followed by a luncheon served at the home of Mrs. J. P. Short on West Bridgeport street. The officers of the Music club for next year were elected: Mrs. C. C. Brown, president; Mrs. Ward Hull, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Brown, secretary; Mrs. L. W. Hornbeck, treasurer; Miss Bird Duncan, chorus director; Mrs. Lee Erb, assistant director; Mrs. Laura Pritchett, accompanist; Mrs. Clifford Seely, assistant accompanist; Mrs. Edward Silkwood, reporter. The club will be entering upon its twenty-sixth year.

Record Breaking Crowd
The Golden Era Community club held a postponed meeting at the Golden Era school Tuesday evening with a record breaking crowd present. There were about 125 people present. The young ladies in the club had charge of the program, and they included Misses Edna Pinkerton, Ruth Black, Anna Frances Prazier, Eunice Knox, Mary Esther Simpson, Earlmond Hicks and Mildred Hicks. The program included music on the violin by C. K. Kesinger; guitar, Stanley Roberts; piano, Ruby Roberts; accordion, Earl Moore; Belltown, Verne Toole; of Rodhouse made a talk. An original play, "When Youth Goes Wild," written by Mrs. Earl Hicks, a member of the club, was presented with the cast including Mr. and Mrs. Clark Smith, Roy and Eunice Knox, Ethel and Dorothy Pinkerton, Earlmond and Mildred Hicks and Anna Frances Prazier. Mrs. Lowell Conrad, teacher of the school, and several of her pupils presented a little play. Harley and Curtis Tackling sang a duet. The committee served sandwiches, cookies, pickles and punch. The next committee will include Mrs. Mrs. Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Suttles.

Demonstrate Pottery
J. O. Brooks spent from Thursday until Sunday in St. Louis visiting with his friend, D. Hyten of Benton, Ark., who was in St. Louis for two weeks demonstrating Niloak Stoneware in the Famous Barr store. Mr. Hyten accompanied Mr. Brooks to White Hall Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brannan on West Bridgeport street. Mr. Brooks was associated with Mr. Hyten for several months in the Niloak Stoneware plant at Benton, Ark. Dr. C. M. Brown of Hamilton, O.

former pastor of the White Hall Presbyterian church, is here visiting among friends.

W. F. Ellington drove to Jacksonville Wednesday and brought his daughter, Mrs. Russell Chapman of Manchester, to her home from a hospital where she had been receiving treatment for the past several weeks.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gale Dawdy of Patterson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong on Carson street Tuesday evening, March 28, a daughter, who is the first child. The mother was formerly Miss Aline Horney, twin daughter of Mrs. Armstrong.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith at their home on the Van Doren farm northeast of White Hall Monday evening, March 27, a daughter, who is the third child.

Mrs. James Lowry and baby left the White Hall hospital Wednesday and returned to their home on East Bridgeport street.

Herman Weese of Hillview was able to return to his home Wednesday after having been a patient since an auto accident in which he sustained injuries last Friday night.

Chess Charms
The B class tournament is well under way in the Jacksonville club. At present the leaders are Oscar Zachary and Rev. C. H. Thrall. Members are anticipating a battle royal when these two meet, perhaps to decide the championship of the B class in the club. Two teams from the Class A division are starting correspondence games with Milwaukee. Thrall and McClelland are paired for one match and Powers and Federgreen for another. Milwaukee players have also selected their teams and the games have been started. Ten players gathered last Friday evening at the Y.M.C.A. The increased interest in the club is most gratifying. All players welcome each Friday night. Problem No. 7 (miniature) H. Pich.

TELLS FAT FOLKS HOW SHE REDUCED

"I am 23 years old and weighed 150 pounds. I have taken 3 jars of Kruschen Salts and have reduced 8 pounds and I think it will reduce me to normal weight. I think it's wonderful." Miss Leatha Ford, Dillon, S. C. (Nov. 3, 1932).

To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at Long's Pharmacy or any drugstore in the world but be sure and get Kruschen Salts the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.

McCULLOUGH'S STEERS BRING TOP OF MARKET

W. E. McCullough of Riggsdon accompanied a carload of cattle to National Stock Yards March 29 and saw them cash at the carlot top of the market. These cattle were originally bought at the National Stock Yards last September weighing 780 pounds average and through the expert handling of Mr. McCullough they made exceptional gains on a feed ration of corn and clover hay.

The shipment consisted of 25 steers, mostly Shorthorns, that averaged here 1155 pounds and were sold by the Farmers Live Stock Commission Company at $5.00 per cwt.

POOR HERDS MAKE BEST GAINS IF GIVEN A CHANCE

Urbana, Ill., March 30.—The poorest herd of milk cows in Illinois has been found, but it probably would make the largest gains of any of them if brought into a dairy herd improvement association, according to J. G. Cash, assistant in dairy extension at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Too often dairymen think they must DANCE! DANCE! AUTO INN-SATURDAY Rhythm Ramblers. 25c, and dance all evening.

have a high producing herd in order to profit from membership in a dairy herd improvement association, when as a matter of fact the largest gains often are made by the new man with the low producing herd, he said.

"There is the case, for instance, of the new man in the Boone county association who had a herd average of only 246.9 pounds of butterfat in 1931. By following better dairy practices and culling some of his low producing cows, he was able to increase this average to 290.3 pounds of butterfat in 1932. In spite of the drop in prices, this increase meant an additional $5.70 return above feed cost of cow.

"Back in 1923 a new member, the Coles county association had a herd average of only 217 pounds of butterfat a cow and a very small return above feed cost when he enrolled in the work. He started following the better dairying practices as outlined by the extension services of the agricultural college and began using his records as a basis for culling out the low producing cows. Each year his herd has shown an improvement in efficiency and production until in 1932 it averaged 338.3 pounds of butterfat and returned an average of $70.92 more a cow above feed cost than it did in 1929.

"It is not necessary to look for individual cases to get examples of the results of the dairy herd improvement association drive for fewer and better cows. There has been an increase in efficiency of dairy herd improvement association cows every year since the work started. In 1925 the average production of each cow in Illinois associations was 232.3 pounds of butterfat, while in 1931 it was 320.4 pounds. Members of the associations are out to make still further improvement, for in 1932 they culled out 18.7 per cent of the cows that helped make the 320.4 pound average in 1931. The estimated average production of all dairy cows in the state is approximately 188 pounds of butterfat."

PUBLIC SCHOOLS DISMISSED FOR MEETING FRIDAY

A number of teachers of Jacksonville and Morgan county went to Springfield Thursday to attend the opening session of the South Central Division, Illinois Teachers' Association, annual meeting. A much greater number will go to Springfield for the sessions Friday and Saturday.

Under the school law Friday is a holiday, thus permitting teachers to attend the meeting and be credited for regular school work. The pupils of the city and county public schools will enjoy a vacation Friday while the teachers are in Springfield.

Several Morgan county instructors are on the program and on committees at the south central meeting.

John Wilbur represented the Murfreesboro community in Jacksonville Thursday.

FIRE INSURANCE MAN TALKS TO KIWANIS CLUB

Politics should not enter into the Jacksonville fire department, said Chief J. W. Just of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, at the Thursday meeting of the Kiwanis club. The city has an efficient group of firemen and just because there will be a new mayor soon is no reason for a change in the fire department, the speaker said.

Mr. Just told of cities where almost the entire fire department personnel had been changed by a new mayor, and the result was an additional expense of thousands of dollars thrust upon the city, thru inefficient work of the department and a resultant raising of fire insurance rates. The speaker said inefficient chiefs or others of the fire department should be discharged, but where good service is being given the department should not be made a political football.

He paid a high tribute to Chief Frank Sullivan, asserting that his record for efficiency is high. Because of the fine firemanship of the local department, said Mr. Just, the department has a good record, also handicapped by lack of equipment and short of man power.

The underwriters chief spoke of the change in methods of fire fighting, declaring that ventilation is now playing a most prominent part in battling fire, also it is severely criticized. Persons unlearned in fire fighting methods cannot understand why a fireman should ventilate a building as seen as he arrives at the scene of the blaze. Thru ventilation smoke explosions and damage are prevented and the firemen are enabled to get at the source of the flames.

By cutting a hole in the roof of a building on fire the pressure of gases and smoke is relieved, an explosion is averted and the damage to the building and contents is kept down. It makes the task of finding the blaze more easy too, said the speaker.

The local department is well equipped with major equipment, but lacks minor accessories, declared Mr. Just, and the man power is much below standard. The department needs helmets and foam generators, among other things. While this is considered minor equipment it is nevertheless very important.

STATE HOSPITAL CAPTURES TOURNAMENT CROWN

Injury to Kiki Cuyler Has Given Cubs Hopes For 1933 Championship Severe Jolt

By Brian Bell.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
When Kiki Cuyler was carried from Los Angeles ball park to a Hollywood hospital with a broken ankle, the pennant hopes of the Cubs may have ridden in the same ambulance. The National League champions, with all stars intact, had been looking with anxious eyes toward the shadow of a black pirate flag along the championship race track and the injury to the fine-rider Cuyler will make the Pittsburgh threat seem twice as great.

Frank Demaree, who will be shoved into the yawning spot in the Chicago outfield, is a good ball player and was a great one at times in the last world series, but it is no reflection on the former Sacramento player to say he is no Cuyler. Kiki has been going great guns in spring practice and it will be little short of a baseball miracle if Demaree, a major league sophomore, can pick up where the post-graduate student left off.

The Cubs still have Herman, the Great to hit, and the right fielder almost certainly will kick in some for the other side before all the returns are completed.

Pittsburgh, rated the National League favorite before the starting gun sounds, has escaped injuries to spring training and if its luck holds throughout the campaign seems almost certainly the club to defeat. However, in other years the Pirates have felt the plague of hurts where they can't most.

Manager George Gibson will trot out a well balanced team in perfect physical condition to start the ball rolling. The pitching may prove uncertain but at least the other managers face the same problem. The addition of Freddie Lindstrom has given Pittsburgh a great run making outfield, a combination blessed too with ability to thwart the other fellows' efforts.

The Phillies are not often mentioned in connection with championships and then only in whispers, but Burt Shotton leads a team with a powerful attack and with the luck every winning team needs he might ride a very dark horse into the middle of the pennant picture.

Certainly the Phillies can hit and there seem to have been definitely bettered by between season trades.

The St. Louis Cardinals cannot be counted out if for no other reason than because they have more players available at home and abroad, ashore and afloat, than any other two major league clubs.

The old "Sarge," Gabby Street, is in command of a pitching staff perhaps in a class by itself in the two big circuits. However, his infield is cluttered up with a series of question marks. Rogers Hornsby may or may not be able to carry on in the infield and at bat, and if the Rajah should prove only a shell of his former self, the Cards do not seem to have an immediate replacement.

Shortstop, too, is something of a puzzle and while Frank Frisch can play third base, he does not like the position.

Brooklyn will have a good offensive team in spite of some impotent hitting in the spring games. The addition of the veteran Joe Judge to play first base should prove a distinct advantage. Hack Wilson should be a better player than he was last season and the Dodgers seem to have picked up a recruit pitcher able to start and stick, Walter Beck, from Memphis.

The Giants may fit in well with the current big-saw puzzle craze and prove a great club when, and if, they are put together in proper sequence. Barring ill luck, the Giants should be able to keep out of the cellar and, if this proves to be the case, it is had news for the Boston Braves and Cincinnati Reds. Boston has a mixture of old and young players, but apparently lacks the vital spark to enable the club to compete on even terms with at least four or five of the others and fight its way into the first division.

The Cincinnati Reds, under new management, piloted this year by the peppery and shrewd Donie Bush, has definitely improved, but so have most of the other fellows. Summy Jim Bottomley has brought his big bat to Redland field where base hits can be used at all times. Time was when the best batsman on the Reds was Red Lucas, also the best pitcher. The Redhead will welcome some assistance.

PHILLIES WIN FROM ORIOLES

Jacksonville, Fla., March 30.—(AP)—The Phillies managed to nose out the Baltimore Orioles of the International League 3 to 7 today in the windup game of their spring training season. Jumbo Jim Elliott was tagged for four runs in the first and Ed Holley replaced him, to be followed by two more hurriers.

TO CALL OUT BASE BALL MEN AT ROUTT

Eight Game Schedule Planned For Baseballers This Spring—Will Face Practice Next Monday Night—Seek Hurlers.

First call for baseball talent will be issued today at Routt high school, where Coach Wallace Baptist will begin building his spring sports program around a group of veteran hurlers, but will be without the services of a trained and successful pitcher. The baseball candidates will report late this afternoon for uniforms and instructions, and the first practice will be held Monday afternoon.

Four hurlers have been found already, but the task of finding a pitcher as effective as Dave Lawless who graduated from Routt last year, will probably go without completion. The four boys who have indicated their willingness to climb the mound to face the enemy cups are Bubba, Bretz, Held and Tapochik. Bretz and Held have had some experience, and Tapochik has come to the mound a few times in batting practice. He is a port sager, and if he shows any improvement over his last season's work, will be a welcome addition to the staff.

A new first baseman will be needed to round out an infield which will have at least four veterans. DiCenso, catcher, will wind up his high school career with the baseball team. Gea, second, Blesse, and Bostudik each have another year. Paul Duffner, who served as reserve catcher last year, will be used in the same capacity this year, but probably will go into the outfield until he is needed behind the bat.

Eight games are planned for this season. Two games are against with Petersburg, two more with Central high of E. St. Louis, two with St. Teresa of Decatur, and two more with an opponent to be named later.

A STAGG PARTY

Septuagenarian Amos Alonzo Issues Call for Spring Grid Practice at New Location

"STAGG Fears St. Mary's," may become a sports page headline soon. For the Grand Old Man of Midway, after 40 years of coaching at the University of Chicago and "fearing Purdue" in football, Stagg and his team of the Pacific, Stockton, Calif. Above Stagg is shown with his new squad.

Good tidings for those interested in the case of Earl Perce, Illinois College athlete who has been confined to Passavant hospital for two months. Earl was released from the hospital yesterday for a short walk, and apparently has recovered from the fever which broke off his brilliant athletic career just when it was about to blossom.

The career has not been finished. Perce will not return to college this semester, but plans to come back next fall, full of pep and without any worries about his health such as bothered him during the basketball season. His heart has returned to normal, his temperature has been running normal for several days, and he is gaining weight rapidly.

Earl says he has or had, he is not just sure yet that he has been cured. "Indolent" fever, and his physician says it was "undulant" fever, but whatever it was, we are darn glad Earl is able to get out and particularly enjoy this spring weather. We say partially enjoy, because Perce is never quite happy unless he is involved in some sort of strenuous exercise.

And Earl is plenty pleased to be roaming about the streets again. When he first entered the hospital, he was told that there was some doubt that he would ever be able to leave it again on two feet. Continued examination of his body revealed the fever which was causing his heart to act peculiarly, but finding the disease required continual observation. Once it was definitely decided what was the trouble, a serum shot every three days brought Perce back. He had ten of these shots and failed to register any sort of reaction to the last one, indicating that the cure was nearly complete.

There's a bit of the boy that Perce really is sticking out all through the story of his fight to regain his former physical well-being. For three weeks he was forced to lay in bed with the thought that there was considerable doubt about the ability of medical science to combat the strange disease for which no cure is known. He was told that bacteria from an abscessed tooth had penetrated his blood vessels and that the bacteria were being spread through his system.

But Perce never lost his courage—he knew he was going to walk out of that hospital. After three weeks in bed, the fever was finally diagnosed, and the cure for the fever was applied. Another month and he apparently has been restored to health. He's going home when he and his physician are fully satisfied that he has recovered, and get ready for college next fall. He is studying to be a physician.

A bit of possibly belated golf news—All of the greens at Nichols park have been top-dressed and are looking better than they ever have. Jim Sample, park boss, declared yesterday. The greens are showing unusual activity at this stage of the season, the grass coming through the new top dressing so rapidly that mowers soon will be brought out of their winter storage and applied to the greens.

Two tees have been moved recently. The number four tee has been moved south about the width of the tee, making a new sort of a shot possible.

And the golfers who were barely able to get their shots across the lake from number nine tee, will have to put about 10 more yards on their shots to cross the water this year. The number nine tee has been moved back until it is almost on the railroad track.

Fishermen already are beginning to take their annual catches out of the lake, but we haven't heard of any startling catches yet. Mr. Sample is making it easier for the lake to stock itself by penning up the swans which

TIGERS WILL GO TO OAK PARK MEET

Burns To Take Several Boys To Suburban Chicago For Relay Carnival Saturday—Have Hopes Of Winning Points.

Illinois School for the Deaf's thin-clads, who have been working hard for several weeks on the Illinois College field, will leave today for Chicago where they will take part in the Oak Park high school relay carnival on Saturday afternoon. The trip was made possible by the fact that today is a holiday at the school and because some of the boys, who live in Chicago, have invited other members of the Tiger squad to be their guests over the week-end.

The Tigers are planning big things for this track season, and although they do not hope to start it off with a bang by winning the Oak Park meet, Coach Burns believes his boys will get a lot of valuable experience. The trip will be made in two cars. Capt. John Chudzikiewicz, shot-putter, discus tosser and javelin thrower, will head the Tiger contingent which has been entered in six events. "Chud" has been throwing the shot farther in drills this year than he showed it last year in the finals of the state track and field meet, and considerably more than at the corresponding time last year. His best mark so far has been a little over 46 feet.

The Tigers won second in the district meet last year and have set their eyes on the championship of this district this year. They will be represented in the 50 yard dash at Oak Park by Test and Suter, who will carry the burden of winning points in the dashes. Gudalish, another sprinter, will be in the 100 yard dash. The mets get out doors, but the Oak Park meet will be held indoors.

Stogis and Riha have been entered in the mile run, Donehue and Beards in the 60 yard low hurdles, Donehue in the broad jump, and Test, Gudalish, Suter and Donehue will compete in the 8 lap relay.

Coach Burns has outlined a series of meets for the spring season, beginning this Saturday at Oak Park. The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

April 15—At Maplewood Relays, St. Louis.
April 22—At Atlanta Relays, Atlanta, Illinois.
April 29—At Urbana Relays, Urbana, Illinois.
May 6—Jesseville at I. S. D.
May 13—District meet here.
May 20—State Championship meet.

SAN FRANCISCO TROUNCES SOX

San Francisco, March 30.—(AP)—In spite of Al Simmons' heavy sack work in the third, which netted two marks when he belted out a home run, the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific coast league defeated the Chicago White Sox 7 to 3 here today.

Sad Sam Jones, right hander of the American leaguers, hurled the first five innings and was nipped for four runs. Kimsey, who then undertook the pitching assignment, was taken for three more in the sixth.

BROWNS WIN OUT IN 11 INNINGS

Pitchers and catchers have been here since March 7 and most of the others since March 12.

Manager Gabby Street felt considerable concern today about his infield, following yesterday's rout by the Boston Braves 12 to 2. Rogers Hornsby, after a long rest and careful nursing, limped through six innings yesterday. A sore tendon continued to give him trouble.

ATHLETICS NIP DODGERS 7-4

St. Louis Cardinals broke camp today and started for Dublin, Ga., where they will start their barnstorming tour tomorrow.

WHEAT AND CORN FINISH LOWER

By John F. Boughton,
Associated Press Market Editor.

Chicago, March 30.—(AP)—Jolted by a sudden rise in grain prices, grain traders today at the last, grain-value-fueled, 10-cent quick setbacks, and finished with losses for wheat and corn.

Large pressure of wheat was attributed to unloading of some heavy speculative wheat, and a sharp rise in the proposed liquidation of $157,000,000 of federal commodity loans made to co-operative marketing associations was variously construed by traders, some asserting that the announcement was a warning of a new policy, and most of the loans were against non-grain products, and that in the long run the new policy as to the loans was basically constructive.

Wheat futures closed 1 1/2 cents higher yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1/2 off, oats unchanged to 1-1/2 up, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents down.

prevailed in the wheat market during the late transactions. This was chief that liquidation of commodity holdings by co-operative marketing agencies would not be an important factor as to grain. Earlier, the crowd had generally inclined to the view that the proposed co-operative loan liquidation was feasible.

Friends of higher prices for wheat put stress on reports that the Senate agriculture committee had approved an amendment to the administration farm bill so as to guarantee to growpers the cost of production on commodities included in the bill. Leading trade authorities here asserted, however, that cost of production was a vague and ill-defined phrase, and differed on every farm, involving more here as well as capital spent in production. It was added that if such a requirement stayed in the bill, the net effect would be another almost impossible provision for the secretary of agriculture to struggle with.

Corn and oats mainly followed wheat.

Provisions averaged lower with higher values.

Closing inventories: Wheat—May 52-53, 535-4; July, 521-4; 544-1; Sept. 52-53, 541. Corn—May, 291-1; 291; July, 301-3; 313; Sept., 322, 254-1.

FRUIT MARKET

BEGIN HERE TODAY

When JANET HILL learns that BETTY KENDALL has been breaking engagements with her to meet BETTY KENDALL, a society girl, she tells him their marriage is off. Janet is 25, pretty and secretary to BETTY KENDALL, advertising manager of Every Home Magazine.

She still loves Rolf and cannot forget him. JEFF GRANT, a young engineer, saves her purse from a bolding man one night and she and Jeff become friends. When she reads in a newspaper that Rolf has eloped with a Betty Kendall she tells Jeff about her broken engagement and says she can never care for anyone else.

Hamilton leaves the magazine and because of retrenchment there is no job for Janet. However, Hamilton tells her his sister, MRS. CURTIS, needs a social secretary and Janet secures the job. It is several days before she learns Mrs. Curtis is Betty Kendall's mother. Janet feels she must give up the job but has no place else to go. She decides to stay as long as Rolf and Betty are out of town.

Mrs. Curtis becomes ill and the doctor orders complete rest. She tells Janet her wedding gift to Betty is to be a completely furnished apartment and to Janet falls the task of finding the apartment. The young couple are not expected for several weeks but Janet comes home one night to find
